ABOUT THE ARTISTS

Daveed Goldman and Nobu Adilman (AKA "DaBu") started Choir! Choir! Choir! in Toronto as a weekly drop-in singing event in February 2011. Equal parts singing, comedy and community-building, the duo now travels around the world to bring friends, foes and strangers together to sing the greatest songs of all time.

Choir! Choir! Choir! has performed in bars, at festivals and on big stages including Carnegie Hall, Radio City Music Hall, Massey Hall, Lincoln Center, The Juno Awards, Joe's Pub, Art Gallery of Ontario, Parliament Hill in Ottawa, National Arts Centre, Luminato Festival, at TEDx Toronto, the Polaris Music Prize Gala and more. And they've been joined by guest singers such as David Byrne, Patti Smith, Rufus Wainwright, Rick Astley, Kermit the Frog, Patton Oswalt, Tegan and Sara, Bruce Cockburn, Kathleen Edwards, Colin Hay (Men At Work), Joel Plaskett, Sarah Harmer, Chris Murphy (Sloan) and many more. Watch their videos at YouTube.com/choirx3.

In 2016, the Choir! Choir! Choir! Foundation was launched (in association with the Toronto Foundation) to formalize their deep commitment to various causes. The foundation's 2015 "C!C!C! Sings for Syria" campaign raised $70,000 and sponsored two families to Toronto. The 2016 "25 days of Charity! Charity! Charity!" campaign raised $50,000 for 25 local, national and international organizations.
