

Jazz Vocalist Jane Monheit and Special Guest Mark O'Connor at the Annenberg

A two-time Grammy® nominee, Jane Monheit brings a decade of performing and recording experience to the Annenberg Center. Her first album, "Never Never Land," was voted Top Debut Recording by the Jazz Journalist's Association and stayed on the Billboard Jazz chart for over a year. With several number one albums under her belt, Monheit has become a beloved jazz and cabaret artist.

The Annenberg Center continues its jazz series with a performance by Grammy® nominee and audience favorite Jane Monheit on Saturday, March 16 at 8 p.m. Photo/Courtesy Unlimited Myles

Monheit will be performing hits from her most recent recording, "Home." Monheit will be joined by Michael Kanan on piano, Rick Montalbano on drums and Neil Miner on bass. The performance will also prominently feature special

The Annenberg Center continues its jazz series with a performance by Grammy® nominee and audience favorite Jane Monheit. Known for a smoky, romantic jazz tone, she will be joined by Grammy®-winning fiddler, Mark O'Connor.

This performance will take place on Saturday, March 16 at 8 p.m. Audience members are invited to attend a pre-show chat with Jane Monheit at 7 p.m. Tickets are $20-$55 (prices are subject to change). For tickets or for info, visit AnnenbergCenter.org or call 215-898-3900. Tickets can also be purchased in person at the Annenberg Center Box Office.

guest and internationally renowned jazz violinist, Mark O'Connor.

Mark O'Connor is a two-time Grammy® award winner for Best Country Instrumental Performance and Best Classical Crossover Album and an eight-time nominee. With over two million albums sold, his keen hybrid of American bluegrass, jazz, country and classical has garnered him mass critical acclaim and prestige. He has recorded with a wide range of artists including Chet Atkins, James Taylor, Michelle Shocked, Alison Krauss, David Grisman, Tony Rice, Béla Fleck, Renée Fleming, Pinchas Zukerman, Stéphane Grappelli, Patty Loveless, The Dixie Dregs, John Hartford and Wynton Marsalis.

